

Travel the globe with Bakers Coaches and get paid.....!!

Your ticket to see the World

If you love meeting and working with people and have a desire to travel the length and breadth of the country and across to Western Europe, then we may have the ideal job for you!

If you meet our job specification requirements we will train you to drive our luxury coaches with our experienced Driver Trainer and you'll become part of a family company with an excellent training ethic.

Do you like working with children and young adults and you have a few hours to spare each day? Would you like to drive a coach part time/ casual to fit in with your own current commitments, home or work? Then we have more flexible positions available.

For more information regarding our training posts or part time/ casual work, please visit our website at www.bakerscoaches.com & download an application form or contact Dave Machin or Geoff Barker on 01782 522101.
