Why Beartown Bus?

Congleton's town bear was a major attraction at the town's Wakes, but in 1662, the bear died suddenly just before the Wakes. It was essential to have a replacement bear straight away, and some money to be used for buying a new bible was allocated for this. There is no evidence that the bible was delayed but the memory lives on!

Following requests from customers for direct services to the Railway Station new journeys were introduced in May 2009, unfortunately these additional journeys have not seen the level of usage required to continue their operation and it is therefore necessary to withdraw them with effect from Monday 1 February. We would like to thank those who supported these journeys whilst they were operating.
